NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.

8 The Court finds that the parties and his/her respective counsel acknowledge that they

17 provision of said Further Judgment or to enforce any executory term contained therein or is 18 otherwise reasonably necessary. Notwithstanding the foregoing, said Further Judgment shall 19 not be filed with the Court unless the party intending to file same: (1) provides the other 20 party with ten (10) business days advance written notice identifying the alleged breach, 21 requested modification or other reason for filing the Further Judgment in order to allow 22 him/her time to rectify the breach and to comply with the terms of the Further Judgment, or

8 filed under seal pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 2.551. Any party making such 9 an ex parte application shall comply with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1200 through 10 3.1207. If no ex parte application is made, or the Court does not require any sealing, the 11 notifying party may file or otherwise submit the Further Judgment or identified information 12 therein without sealing.

13 3. In the event that Petitioner or Respondent intends to file the Further Judgment 14 or any information therein with the Court on an ex parte basis, then counsel for Petitioner or 15 counsel for Respondent shall provide the other with written notification on or before 16 10:00 a.m. the day prior to the ex parte appearance in which Confidential Information will be

24 the Court makes its orders regarding the redacting or sealing of the Further Judgment and/or
